

The Well-Dressed Man Has an Advantage that is Always with Him.

Yet few men are really Well-dressed—that is in the STEIN-BLOCH Meaning of the word Well. If every Merchant Tailor gave as much attention to details in one suit as these great Wholesale Tailors give to every suit or overcoat that leaves their shops, he would have to charge such prices that only Careless Spenders could meet the Bills. Being limited in means, the merchant tailor has not the facilities that great shops and unrestricted resources can supply.

Our Spring and Summer assortments of STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES show this superiority with brilliant clearness.

Their Fabrics are from the best of the foreign and domestic weavers. Their patterns are of the most modern and fashionable colors and contrasts. Their style is clean cut and "different." Their quality is that of the famous STEIN-BLOCH standard, and is signed with this label:

UNDER ONE HEAD ONLY

All Public Lands to Be Placed in Pratt's Control.

As a result of a conference the Governor held yesterday with the Superintendent of Public Works and the Commissioner of Public Lands, all of the public lands hitherto controlled by the Public Works Department are to be placed, with the rest of the public domain, in the custody of the Land Department. It may be news to many people that there has been any such division of departmental control of Government lands as that now about to be abolished.

Governor Carter gave the following statement on the subject to an Advertiser reporter:

"Mr. Holloway and Mr. Pratt have been with me a good part of today, considering a change relative to lands on which rent has heretofore been paid to the Public Works Department—lands not actually in the use of that Department. Quite a lot of rent has been collected by the Public Works office.

"It has practically been a case of two departments of land and two men responsible in land matters. Each sometimes interpreted the laws differently from the other and they even made regulations at variance with each other.

"For some time past we have been asking if it would not be more economical and efficient, as well as best for the public interests, to have all of the land business under one management. The particular lands in question are a lot of remnants.

"Today we went over the list of all the lands. There were one or two technical questions to settle. Finally we decided to put all of the lands not in actual use by the Department of Public Works under Mr. Pratt, Commissioner of Public Lands, as was evidently intended by the Organic Act.

"By this change the Report of the Public Lands Department alone will show all of the revenue derived from that source. The Commissioner will be enabled to systematize the land administration more effectively, and in keeping his records can cover the business of these remnants as well as of the other lands."

RALLY AROUND THE OLD STAND

The old political platform at the junction of Bethel and Hotel streets will be occupied this evening by the Fifth District Republicans, who propose to have a grand rally there. The Senatorial candidates, as well as the lower house candidates, will be present, and a rousing time is anticipated. A debate is on between Achi and Poepe as to whether there is a Home Rule party in the United States.

Wunderberg Mentioned.

The name of Fred Wunderberg was yesterday mentioned as a man who might run on the Democratic House ticket instead of Mr. Hutchins.

MRS. I. B. BISHOP DEAD

Author of a Famous Volume On Hawaii.

LONDON, October 7.—Mrs. Isabella Bird Bishop, traveler, philanthropist and author, is dead, aged 72 years.

Mrs. Bishop was conceded to be one of the greatest authorities on the Far East. She came into prominence over twenty years ago by her book, "A Lady's Life in the Rocky Mountains." As Isabella Bird she added to her reputation by several other books. One of these was, "The Hawaiian Archipelago; Six Months Among the Palm Groves, Coral Reefs and Volcanoes of the Sandwich Islands." Another volume, "The Golden Chersonese," gives remarkably vivid pictures of life in the Malay peninsula and of the leading Chinese cities that the author visited on her way to Singapore. She followed this with "Unbeaten Tracks in Japan," "A Journey Through Persia" and "Among the Tibetans." Traveling entirely alone, Mrs. Bishop trusted to the honor of the people among whom she journeyed, and found the Tibetans so kind and so hospitable that she has declared they realized more nearly than any other people her ideal of the life of Christ.

She then visited Corea, and recorded her impressions of that country in a book called "Corea and Her Neighbors," which is unquestionably the standard authority on the Hermit Kingdom. Another remarkable work from her pen was "The Yangtze Valley and Beyond," an account of a trip undertaken in 1897, extending 2000 miles up the valley of the great river which flows through the very heart of China.

Mrs. Bishop was born in England in 1832, but began to travel at the age of 22, and since then had spent thirteen years in Asia and several more in this country. She was a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society and an Hon. F. R. S. G. S. of England, and an honorary member of the Oriental Society of Peking.
